Harpist Madison Square Presbyterian Church, New York City

Regarding her work at this church, the Rev. Dr. Chas. H. Parkhurst, pastor, says:—

> "The harp plays a unique rôle in any form of musical service, in that it constitutes a kind of atmosphere in which other instruments or human voices find a medium in which to move, fulfilling its mission not so much by standing out in distinctness from other contributing elements, as by filling in the interstices and thus rounding out the performance into a finished whole.
>
> "I write with a good deal of feeling in the matter, for it has been my privilege for many years to have the musical services of my church enriched by a harpist, Gertrude Ina Robinson, whose skillful and appreciative touch has interpreted to me the meaning and function of the harp as a factor in the rendering of sacred music."

C. H. Parkhurst.

> "Gertrude Ina Robinson is the first woman to do serious study work for that sacredly beautiful instrument, the harp, and the first American woman to create a series of study books for the harp. Her compositions are admirable to my thinking as a student of the harp."

PREFACE

The author of this book has been harpist at the Madison Square Presbyterian Church of New York City for eleven years.

During this time and owing, in particular, to the limited amount of printed music available for harp and organ, it has been necessary to arrange many classic and modern works, originally written for other combinations, but which lend themselves quite naturally to such an instrumental combination.

The Madison Square Presbyterian Church of New York City was one of the first to recognize the fitness of the harp as part of the sacred service, and to demonstrate such recognition in practical form by purchasing a concert grand American harp, and in this way incorporate the instrument lastingly with the musical needs of the church.

Since creating my position, many churches have added the harp, and, in consequence, there is a growing demand for appropriate music.

It is to artists in this capacity that I am submitting the following arrangements, hoping that as a result of my experience they may find it desirable material, and, in addition, thoroughly practical and artistic.
